DETAILED ACTION

(1). Applicants' Request-for-Continued Examination (RCEX), Affidavits and Remarks filed on 5/27/2008 have been received.

The rejections of claims 1-2, 4-12, 51-64 and 79-82 in prior Office Action dated 11/28/2007 are withdrawn in view of the present Affidavits and Remarks.

Allowable Subject Matter

(2). Claims 1-2, 4-12, 51-64 and 79-82 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

(3). The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Instant Application is in condition of allowance, mainly in view of the evidence provided by Applicants' Affidavits to the facts that the combinations of sulfuric acid in amount between 0.1 to 4% by volume with amine and other ingredients show the extraordinary effects on the H<sub>2</sub>S adsorption. It is illustrated in Table I which show composition of prior art Fukumoto et al (US05231063A) and five variations comprising different volumes of sulfuric acids falling within the 0.1 to 4 % by volume. Table II shows four compositions comprising monoethanolamine, zinc sulfate and water. The test results for each composition for H<sub>2</sub>S adsorption as shown in Table II is 2 to 3 folds than the H<sub>2</sub>S adsorption by compositions of Fukumoto et al (US05231063A) as shown in Table I. Although Miller (US05700438A) teaches the use of amine for removal of H<sub>2</sub>S by water soluble amine, copper sulfite, the unexpected results as provided by Applicants overcome the combined teaching of Fukumoto et al (US05231063A) and Miller (US05700438A) for inference of obviousness. Accordingly, instant claims 1-2, 4-12, 51-64 and 79-82 are patentable and passed to issue.

As of the date of this Notice of Allowability, the examiner has not located or identified any reference that can be used singularly or in combination with another reference including reference cited above to render the present invention anticipated or obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Art Unit: 1797

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
